

Zaza Johnson Elsheikh

Zaza Johnson Elsheikh offers a unique blend of professional experience as a Medical Doctor (1994), Clinical Negligence solicitor (2004) and currently as the Senior Partner at Commercial and Medical Dispute Solutions LLP and a Co-Founder of two charities: Belief in Mediation and Arbitration and Converge.

Zaza runs a busy civil/commercial, family, probate, schools and workplace mediation practice based in Dartford covering Essex, London and Kent. Zaza's mediation services are also influenced by her mixed cultural and religious heritage.

She is a Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIArb) accredited International Commercial Arbitrator. Consequently, she strongly supports the growth of alternative dispute resolution services for all communities and has delivered many relevant lectures within churches and mosques, as well as in legal, medical and national security sectors. She regularly delivers Faithful Dispute Resolution and leadership training for adults and has also worked in partnership with Kent Police in delivering #Prevent Tragedies through assemblies about "Valuing Differences" in primary and secondary schools in Kent.
