

Bill Marsh

Bill Marsh is one of Europe's most experienced mediators. Formerly a corporate lawyer, Bill has been involved full-time in mediation since 1991 in a wide range of disputes and conflicts involving governments, businesses, factions, pressure groups and individuals from over 50 countries, and covering commercial, religious, ethnic and political conflicts.

International recognition has led Bill to be ranked Global Mediator of the Year for 2019-20, and featured at the top of the most highly regarded individuals in the World list in The International Who's Who of Commercial Mediation 2014.

In addition to his commercial mediation practice, Bill mediates widely in religious conflicts on behalf of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and in 2016 received the Archbishop's award for outstanding services to reconciliation. He has acted as adviser on mediation to numerous governments, as well as World Bank/IFC, EU and others, represented the UK at UN talks and chaired a range of high-level international meetings.

Finally, Bill trains and mentors mediators around the world.
