

Corinne von Burg

Corinne von Burg joined swisspeace as a program officer in the Mediation Program in 2013. In her work at swisspeace, she focuses on mediation process design with an emphasis on questions of participation as well as on national dialogue. She is also the course director of the annual training course on National Dialogue and Peace Mediation.

Corinne holds an MA in Social Anthropology, Modern History and International Law from the University of Zurich. She is also a trained mediator, with a CAS in Mediation from the University of Applied Sciences in Bern.

Before joining swisspeace, Corinne worked for the Peace and Recovery Cluster of the United Nations Development Program in Colombo, Sri Lanka and for the Swiss Federal Department of Foreign Affairs' Office of the Special Envoy for Sudan, South Sudan and the Horn of Africa.

Her geographical focus lies on the Greater Horn of Africa and South Asia.
